Golfers dress in pink for event

Ladies from the Harvey Golf Club wrapped up their season last Thursday with a pink-themed closing day fundraiser sponsored by Marlon Taylor.

The stableford competition saw 27 ladies participate, with Robyn Peet winning the day with 38 points from Judy Wyatt and Judith Doyle, both on 36.

Other good scores included Sue Eckersley, Grace Zabajnik, Pam Davey and Jan Hunter, all with 32.

Novelties were shared by Marion Icton, Robyn Piggott and Robyn Peet.

To make the day a little different, at the end of play all of the golfers were teamed up with a silent partner, and Mrs Taylor's trophies were awarded to the best scoring pairs.

Robyn Peet was teamed with Judy Wyatt who both scored highly and easily won the day with a combined 74 points.

The ladies from the Harvey Golf Club dressed up in pink to celebrate their final game of the season dressed in pink.
