EMPLOYMENT

Are you looking for a change of pace? Or a unique role outside the usual business duties and hours? Are you keen for a job that helps others live their best lives?

My Place is a values-based organization that supports people with disabilities to pursue the lifestyle of their choice.

We are seeking reliable, motivated people to provide 24hr periods of support for individuals with disability who live in their own homes in the Busseton area.

The role involves providing support and mentoring around daily living and homebased activities, as well as making connections and finding the fun in the local community.

If you are interested in seeing others thrive, able to work autonomously and keen on a lifestyle-role we would like to hear from you!

Driver's license, own vehicle, or transport to and from the workplace, and willingness to complete the NDIS Worker Screening, NDIS Worker Orientation module, a medical and 3 doses of the Covid-19 vaccine are essential.

If you are interested in this position, please email your CV and availability to Saren Reid: saren.reid@myplace.org.au
